

Attorneys With Million Dollar Verdicts

These results are sorted in order from largest to smallest and are not capped

County	Case#	Verdict	Description
Lake Plaintiff: Kenneth J. Allen Defense: Matthew C. Conner	134	$16,058,754	Doctor misdiagnosed a spinal tumor as a back sprain NOTE: This case resulted in a directed verdict rather than a jury verdict
Marion Plaintiff: John Muller & M. Michael Stephenson Defense: Robert G. Zeigler & Karen L. Withers	271	$8,500,000	Patient with perforated bowel obstruction died after film was misplaced
Daviess Plaintiff: Peter L. Obremsky & Anthony W. Patterson Defense: Jeffrey A. Boyll	141	$7,000,000	Hour's delay in difficult delivery led to infant's severe brain damage
Marion Plaintiff: Steven E. Willsey & David B. Wilson Defense: Kelly J. Pitcher & Daniel R. Fagan	268	$5,000,000	Patient with ruptured diaphragm and hernia was misdiagnosed with muscle strain
Lake Plaintiff: Barry D. Rooth & Holly S.C. Wojcik Defense: John M. McCrum & Kirk D. Bagrowski	234	$4,450,000	Doctor misdiagnosed aneurysm as kidney stones
Marion Plaintiff: Terry Kaiser Park Defense: Edward L. Murphy, Jr. & Diana C. Bauer	69	$3,899,731	After back surgery, an infection set in and was not timely diagnosed
Marion Plaintiff: Michael S. Miller & Belinda J. Kunczt Defense: Daniel R. Fagan, Kelly R. Eskew, Angela M. Smith & H. Kent Smith	219	$3,700,000	Lack of oxygen at birth caused baby's mental and physical problems; doctors left sponge behind
Lawrence Plaintiff: Michael Einterz & Trent Thompson Defense: David D. Becsey & Joseph McPike	61	$3,567,000	Infant suffered kidney damage in delivery
Lake Plaintiff: Kenneth J. Allen Defense: Jon F. Schmoll	10	$3,500,000	Error in gallbladder surgery caused liver injury
Delaware Plaintiff: Scott L. Starr & Matthew D. Barrett Defense: Christopher L. Riegler	243	$3,250,000	Doctor failed to test mole; patient had skin cancer
Lake Plaintiff: John M. Kopach Defense: Robert F. Parker, Louis W. Voelker & Karol A. Schwartz	192	$3,000,000	Patient undergoing surgery to correct spine curve ended up with brain damage