

Kentucky Trial Court Review February 2006 Table of Contents

Verdicts

Jefferson County

Medical Negligence - Post-operative care after a vasectomy was criticized - Defense verdict	p. 5
Hospital Negligence - A disabled patient at a hospital spilled hot tea on herself - Defense verdict	p. 6
Underinsured Motorist - Plaintiff complained of PTSD after a rear-ender – the verdict was equal to the coverage limits - $25,000	p. 7
Underinsured Motorist - Husband and wife sustained injuries in a significant red light crash - $395,131 and $23,416	p. 8
Auto Negligence - Disputed red light crash - Defense verdict	p. 10
Employment Retaliation - Plaintiff was fired when he came in to pick up his worker's compensation check - $76,771	p. 10
Medical Negligence - A chiropractor was blamed for missing a tumor that infringed plaintiff's brain - Defense verdict	p. 12

Fayette County

Breach of Contract for Non-Lawyer Services - An Erin Brockovich sought to enforce an oral agreement after her lawyer-employer settled a Fen-Phen case for millions - $900,000	p. 1
Disability Discrimination - Two blind employees at the municipal bus company alleged discrimination - Defense verdict	p. 7
Auto Negligence - Medicals/No Suffering - $1,189	p. 9
Auto Negligence - Medicals/No Suffering - $15,815	p. 11

Federal Court - Louisville

Employment Retaliation - A female TSA employee was exiled to a lonely office when she complained of pay inequity - $1,150,000	p. 4
---	------

Boyle County

Medical Negligence - Plaintiff's spine was not protected at the hospital and her burst fracture turned into a paralyzing injury - Defense verdict	p. 5
--	------

Trigg County

Auto Negligence - A chiropractor's wife took medicals, but nothing for pain and suffering - $6,500	p. 6
Auto Negligence - Minor rear-ender - Threshold verdict	p. 12

Russell County

Fraud - Plaintiff's bounty of consignment goods turned out to be stolen - $50,500	p. 7
---	------

Laurel County

Medical Negligence - Podiatry misadventure - Defense verdict	p. 8
---	------

McCracken County

Auto Negligence - Husband and wife hurt in a serious head-on crash on the interstate - $123,020 and $80,960	p. 9
Auto Negligence - Suffering from radiating neck pain was valued at $10,000 - $21,500	p. 12

Pike County

Auto Negligence - The claims of a husband and wife injured in a crash were rejected on damages - Zero verdict	p. 9
--	------

Marion County

Auto Negligence - Avoiding a wide-turning truck, the defendant backed into the plaintiff - Defense verdict	p. 9
---	------

Floyd County

Auto Negligence - Slowing to turn left, plaintiff was rear-ended $26,206	p. 10
Auto Negligence - Brain injury sustained in a right of way crash in Prestonsburg - $16,709	p. 13

Daviess County

Medical Negligence - Fratzke snafu - Defense verdict	p. 11
---	-------

Union County

Tree Negligence - A tree that was weakened by tree-trimming collapsed on plaintiff's wood shed - Defense verdict	p. 11
---	-------

Supreme Court Tort Opinions

Sovereign Immunity - In investigating child abuse, employees of the Cabinet for Families & Children are exercising discretionary and enjoy immunity	p. 13
--	-------

Discretionary Review at the Supreme Court	p. 13
--	-------

Verdicts Revisited

Amusement Park Negligence - Res ipsa loquitur is an evidentiary presumption and should never be submitted in a jury instruction	p. 14
--	-------

Underinsured Motorist - It is reversible error when a UIM carrier has Coots -advanced the underlying limits to exclude the identity of that UIM carrier at trial	p. 14
--	-------